A temporary employee, as defined above, shall be covered by the terms and conditions of this agreement during the extended period of temporary employment.

ARTICLE 2 TERMS OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the full, complete and final understanding and agreement of the parties for the duration hereof. The parties voluntarily and unqualifiedly waive the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated, to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter whether or not referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subject matter may or may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both parties at the time that this Agreement was negotiated or signed. The execution of this Agreement shall not result in any abridgment of the rights retained by the University pursuant to Article 3.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

It is agreed that the University retains all of the rights, powers and authority possessed by the University prior to the execution of this Agreement and that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the University in any way in the exercise of these rights, except to the extent that these rights are specifically relinquished, restricted or modified by the express provisions of this Agreement. These rights shall include, but shall not be limited to the right to:

1. determine the mission, purposes, objectives, policies, and programs of the institution;
2. determine the facilities, methods, standards, and means of operation, and number and qualifications of personnel required for the conduct of its program;
3. determine and/or alter work schedules, hours of employment, and the duties, responsibilities and assignments of employees with respect hereto;

9. change existing, or introduce new equipment, operations, methods, processes, means or facilities as determined to be in the best interest of the University.

Nothing contained herein shall constitute a waiver of the right of the University to exercise other normal functions of management not enumerated above. Furthermore, the exercise or non-exercise of rights hereby retained by the University shall not be deemed a waiver of any such right or prevent the University from exercising such rights in any way in the future.

ARTICLE 4
UNION SECURITY

Each employee who is member of the Union on the effective date of this Agreement shall, as a condition of employment, remain a member. Each employee who is not a member as a condition of employment, shall, no later than thirty (30) days after his/her employment or the effective date of this Agreement, whichever is later, become and remain a member of the Union. On written notice from a duly authorized union official that an employee who has been employed more than thirty (30) days has failed to tender the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring and retaining membership in the Union, the Employer will discharge such employee within fourteen (14) days after receipt of such notice unless within such fourteen (14) days, such employee's failure to tender such dues and initiation fees is cured.

ARTICLE 5
DUES CHECKOFF

The University agrees to deduct an initiation fee and thereafter bi-weekly the regular Union membership dues from the wages earned by any member of the Union covered by this Agreement and to remit such dues monthly to the Union, provided such employee previously has signed a written authorization and direction to make such deduction to the appropriate University Payroll Manager.

With each remittance, the Employer will provide the Union with a list of names of employees and the dates and amounts of deductions made for each employee. The University shall remit the Dues Checkoff check to the Union within seven (7) days of the last payroll date of the month.

In the event that an employee who has authorized payroll deductions for dues, falls into arrears for one (1) month's dues or less as a result of an unpaid leave of absence or layoff, the University shall deduct that amount, in addition to usual dues deductions, from the employee's paycheck within one (1) month following the Union's notification to the University of the employee's name, social security number, the amount of dues owed and the period for which they are owed. Further, the Union is required to send notice to the employee via first class mail that the Union has requested that the University take this deduction. The Union shall indemnify the University against any and all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability that may arise out of action taken or not taken by the University at the Union's request for the purpose of complying with any of the above provisions.

ARTICLE 6
NO STRIKE GUARANTEE

There will be no strike, work stoppage, work interruption, slow down, sympathy strike, picketing or boycott by the Union or any employee during the life of this Agreement.

In the event of any such action or interference, and on notice from the University, the Union without any delay shall take whatever affirmative action is necessary to prevent and bring about the termination of such action or interference. Such affirmative action shall include immediate disavowal and refusal to recognize any such action or interference and the Union immediately shall instruct any and all employees to cease their misconduct and inform them that their misconduct is a violation of the Agreement subjecting them to disciplinary action.

The University agrees that it will not lock out its employees during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

The University and the Union recognize their mutual obligations that the provisions of this Agreement be applied to all employees covered by this Agreement without regard to race, creed, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, citizenship status, union activity, marital status, disability, national origin, Vietnam era veteran or disabled veteran status. Any employee claiming that he/she was discriminated against based upon one (1) of the above-noted protected categories may file a grievance at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure, Article 11, of the Agreement.

The University and Union recognize their mutual obligations under the various Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity statutes and regulations, labor laws and federal, state and local laws.

ARTICLE 8 UNION STATUS AND RIGHTS

Stewards

The Union will the notify Employer in writing of the elected officers and Stewards (and their alternates in case of the absence of any Union Representative authorized to administer this Agreement on behalf of the Union), and the Employer shall recognize no others.

Access

An authorized non-employee Union Representative shall have reasonable access to Employers premises to ascertain whether conditions of this Agreement are being observed, provided there is no interruption of service or the Employers activities. As a courtesy the Union shall notify management of any visit.

All employees shall have the right to review their personal employee records once a year upon one (1) week's prior written request for records maintained in the New York City office and one (1) month's prior written request for records maintained in Ithaca, New York.

Administration

For purposes of conducting Union business (e.g., Steward meetings, pre-grievance investigations, etc.) during working hours, the University will grant Union Steward(s) and or other bargaining unit members a reasonable amount of unpaid Union business leave. Where feasible, employees will be excused for such leaves provided that the University is given two (2) work days advance notice prior to the date of the leave.

When the Union and the University jointly collaborate on projects, presentations, investigations, etc., which further both labor and management initiatives, employees shall sustain no loss of pay when time spent on such initiatives cuts across normal working hours.

The University will grant two (2) Union Stewards or their designee three (3) days of paid Union business leave within the fiscal year (July 1 – June 30) upon one (1) weeks advance written notice.

Bulletin Board

A suitable bulletin board or bulletin board space shall be provided at the Employer's premises for the Union's use.

ARTICLE 9 SENIORITY

Seniority is defined as the length of time an employee has been continuously employed by the University within the bargaining unit.

Probationary Period

Every new employee will be on probation for a period of ninety (90) calendar days. Periods of temporary layoff, disability and workers' compensation shall extend the probationary period accordingly. The University may extend the probation period for an additional thirty (30) days with the approval of a Union official. Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period seniority shall commence, retroactive to the last date of hire. During their probationary period, employees shall have no seniority rights and may be terminated at the sole election of the University and without recourse to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

Any employee transferred from a position excluded from the bargaining unit shall have no seniority if transferred into the bargaining unit. Such an employee shall be considered a "new hire" for seniority purposes. Employees who transfer out of the bargaining unit to accept a supervisory position or other regular position not included in the bargaining unit shall have their seniority frozen as of the date of transfer.

Employees hired on the same date shall rank for seniority according to the last four (4) digits of their social security number with the employee having the highest number being given the highest rank.

Parties Efforts to Avoid Layoffs in the Unit

The University is committed to the bargaining unit and the employees in the bargaining unit. The University will take all reasonable steps to preserve, maintain and develop new work in the bargaining unit so as to prevent layoffs. The Union agrees to work collaboratively with the University in the event the work of the bargaining unit has to evolve and change to meet new needs. These actions and plans will be discussed with the Union in the labor-management meetings on this topic referred to in Article 29. In the event that these efforts of the University are not be successful and it determines that a layoff is necessary, the Union will be informed of the pending decision and a specific joint labor management meeting on this topic shall be held. Management will provide the Union with specific reasons for the layoff.

In the meeting, the parties will attempt to find reasonable alternatives to avoid the layoff. Within five (5) working days of the joint meeting, either party may request a federal mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) to further assist the parties in discussing and possibly resolve this issue.

If layoffs are necessary:

- a. All layoffs shall be initiated at the department level in the following order:

Employees shall be laid off in line with their seniority in their wage grade and classification within a department, provided the employee(s) to be laid off does not have specialized knowledge or abilities required in the classification which could not be met by the remaining work force.

b. An employee laid off under (a) above may displace (1) the least senior employee in a lower wage grade in the same classification within their department, provided the employee who might be displaced does not have required specialized knowledge or abilities possessed by the laid off employee or (2) the least senior employee in another classification, provided the laid off employee has the recognized skill and ability to immediately perform the job, or will be able to perform the job after a reasonable amount of training, not to exceed twenty (20) working days.

Severance

Employees who are laid off under the provisions of the Layoff section of this Article, will have an option, exercisable in writing within five (5) business days of receipt of written notice of layoff, to elect instead of displacement (i.e. bumping) and recall rights to receive severance pay at the rate of one (1) week of pay per year of seniority service, not to exceed 24 weeks. Severance pay is calculated at the rate of the employee's regular base pay at the time of written notification of layoff, and would be issued in a lump sum payment.

NOTE: If an employee has been laid off previously and received severance pay for prior seniority service, and then rehired and subsequently laid off, he or she will not receive severance pay for the same period of seniority service.

NOTE: The purpose of severance pay is to provide some financial assistance to employees to help them deal with the initial difficulties that may result from the loss of employment. It is not intended to be recognition of years of service with the University. Therefore, employees who accept a regular position with Cornell University that will begin within two weeks of their effective date of layoff are not eligible for severance pay as provided above.

Loss of Seniority

All seniority rights and all other rights under this Agreement shall be lost if the following occurs:

1. The employee resigns employment.
2. The employee is discharged for cause.
3. The employee retires from Cornell University.
4. The employee is absent from active employment for one (1) year.
5. The employee is absent from work for three consecutive working days without directly notifying the supervisor or the departmental administrator, by phone or email in keeping with departmental procedures and provided the failure to notify is not due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee.
6. The employee fails to return to work for three consecutive working days, provided the failure to return to work is not due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee, after:

- the expiration of an approved leave of absence,
- recall from layoff,
- the expiration of vacation,
- or disciplinary suspension,
- expiration of disability or workers' compensation status

Regular Employees Hired for a Specific Term (Term Employees)

1. Term employees will not acquire rights until the job/position is made regular.
2. Term employees made regular shall have their seniority date made retroactive to the date of the commencement of their term appointment.
3. Term appointees shall not have any displacement rights over regular employees unless and until they obtain regular status.

ARTICLE 10
FILLING JOB VACANCIES

The University will post job openings which may occur in the bargaining unit at the NYC ILR Extension Office in accordance with the following procedure:

1. The University will post via e-mail all job vacancies which occur in the bargaining unit including the job description and grade while concurrently advertising the position externally. The University will limit consideration to internal candidates for a minimum of five (5) working days before considering external applicants.
2. It is agreed that all openings should be filled by the person most qualified to perform the work. If all relevant factors are equal, the job opening shall be filled by regular members of the bargaining unit by seniority provided the employee has the recognized skill and ability to immediately perform the job, or will be able to perform the job after a reasonable amount of training, not to exceed twenty (20) working days.
3. The University will provide the Union with a list of all bargaining unit members, their titles and pay grades annually. The Union shall provide the University a list of Shop Stewards annually.
4. The University agrees to provide unit members who are not offered a job for which they have applied a general written explanation of why they were not selected. A copy will also be provided to a unit Shop Steward.

ARTICLE 11
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

1. "Grievance" within the meaning of the Agreement shall be defined as any matter involving the interpretation or application of this Agreement, which alleges a violation of the rights of an employee, or the Union under the terms of this Agreement.
2. An employee grievant and/or one Union Representative participating in the required meetings of the Grievance Procedure, Steps I through 4 inclusive, as set forth in this Article, during working hours shall suffer no loss of wages for the time spent in such meetings. Whenever possible grievance meetings shall be scheduled during the grievant's normal working hours, at a mutually convenient time.

3. In no instance shall a grievance be filed after ten (10) working days for discipline and thirty (30) working days for other grievances from the date of its occurrence or reoccurrence. Any grievance not processed at each level within the number of working days specified herein shall be regarded as settled on the basis of the University's most recent answer. If the University should fail to observe the time limits in a specific step, the grievance may be appealed to the next step or the Union may wait for the University's response. "Working Day" within the meaning of this Article shall be defined as Monday through Friday, excluding all paid holidays.
4. Settlements through Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure shall not establish a precedent or practice for either party. The Union or the University may withdraw a grievance at any step without prejudice or precedence.
5. Initial steps and time limits in the Grievance Procedure may be waived by written mutual agreement of both the University and a Union Representative.
6. No employee shall be discriminated against for participating in the Grievance Procedure.
7. Where an employee's presence as a witness is required during the adjustment of a grievance or during arbitration, the University shall excuse that employee from work. Neither party, however, shall be responsible for the expense of witnesses called by the other, including lost work time. Witnesses called by mutual agreement in advance of the witness appearance shall not lose pay.
8. At each step of the grievance procedure, each party shall present the facts and documents known to the party at the time to support its position on the grievance.

All matters coming under this Article may first be discussed between the aggrieved employee, a unit Shop Steward and his/her supervisor. If a resolution is reached it shall not establish a precedent or practice for either party.

All grievances shall be processed and settled in conformity with the following procedure:

Step 1. The aggrieved employee and his/her Steward will write out the grievance indicating the nature of the grievance, the facts upon which it is based, the contractual provisions that the grievant believes has been violated, and the remedy sought. The grievance shall be heard by the grievant's supervisor who shall render his/her answer in writing within ten (10) working days from the date the grievance was discussed. Such discussion shall take place within ten (10) working days of the submission of the grievance. In the event a satisfactory settlement is arrived at, the parties will execute the appropriate grievance forms. In the event no satisfactory settlement is arrived at, the procedure will then go to Step 2.

Step 2: If the immediate supervisor's written response does not resolve the grievance and the Union chooses to pursue the matter further, the immediate supervisor's answer shall be appealed within ten working days to the Assistant Dean for Human Resources or his/her designee. The Assistant Dean for Human Resources or his/her designee shall within twenty (20) working days from the date the grievance is appealed, meet and discuss the grievance with the employee, the Steward and a Union Representative. A written answer to the grievance shall be provided to the employee and the Union Representative within fifteen (15) working days of the step 2 meeting.

Step 3: If the grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved, the Union, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the step two answer may appeal the grievance to the Director of Labor Relations. The Union's Representative, and the Assistant Dean for Human Resources for the ILR School or the Director of Labor Relations will consult with each other within twenty (20) working days of receipt of the Step 2 response in an effort to resolve the grievance. The Employer will provide a Step 3 answer within ten (10) working days following the step 3 consultation.

Grievance Mediation

Upon mutual agreement, the University and the Union will request a Federal Mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for the purpose of grievance mediation. This process may be implemented with mutual agreement prior to filing for Arbitration, or in the time frame between the filing for Arbitration and the Arbitration proceedings. In the event Grievance Mediation is chosen prior to filing for Arbitration, the time limits for filing for Arbitration will be extended to accommodate the Grievance Mediation process. The decision/ recommendations of the Federal Mediator shall not be binding on either party and may not be introduced in any subsequent arbitration proceedings.

Step 4 - Election to Arbitrate. If the grievance remains unresolved after the Step 3 answer from the University, the designated Union Representative may appeal the grievance to arbitration within forty-five (45) days from the Step 3 answer by written notice to the American Arbitration Association requesting that agency to provided panels from which the arbitrator shall be selected.

The jurisdictional authority of the arbitrator is defined and limited to the determination as to whether there have been violations of the provision or provisions of the Agreement as set forth in the written grievance; the arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be based exclusively on evidence presented at the arbitration hearings and shall be final and binding on all involved parties.

Where the decision of the arbitrator includes an award for back pay, back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages that the employee otherwise would have earned less any unemployment compensation or other additional interim payments or compensation.

The parties shall bear their own expenses and share in the arbitrator's fee and expenses equally. Each party shall be responsible for the expenses of its witnesses and representatives, except as provided in Section 7 of this Article. Either party may be represented by counsel.

Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, the University may temporarily fill any position pending the resolution of the grievance.

Grievances involving suspension or discharge may be submitted directly to Step 2 if mutually agreed upon. In order to be timely filed, such grievance must be submitted in writing to the Assistant Dean for Human Resources within thirty (30) calendar days.

The time periods and limits provided in this Article shall not include Saturdays, Sundays or contractual holidays. Such time periods may be extended only by mutual agreement of the University and the Union. In the absence of such agreement, the time limits shall be mandatory.

It is agreed that the use of the grievance procedure set forth herein shall be mandatory and shall be regarded as the sole and exclusive machinery for the adjustment of claims or grievances. The Union may not at any time resort to economic action in support of grievances while they are being processed or thereafter.

All grievance forms shall be printed and supplied by the Union.

ARTICLE 12 DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

The University and the Union agree to a procedure of progressive discipline. The parties adhere to the principle that discipline has the objective of improving the future performance of the employee.

The University and the Union recognize the sensitive nature of the disciplinary process and to that end, will strive whenever possible, to handle all disciplinary matters in a private setting with relevant personnel only.

An employee may be disciplined only for cause. Employees have the right to Union representation during any meeting that might lead to discipline or during a disciplinary meeting.

The University agrees to honor the employees' Weingarten rights including:

- a. notifying the employee if a discussion may lead to disciplinary action;
- b. stopping all discussion with an employee when the University or employee determines that the discussion may lead to discipline of the employee, in order to provide the employee with the opportunity to meet with and have the Shop Steward or other Union Representative present before continuing the discussion;
- c. violations of (a) and (b) above shall be subject to Article 11, Grievance Procedure and Arbitration in this Agreement.

The steps in the procedure of progressive discipline shall include oral warnings, written warnings, suspensions and discharges.

Referral to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is not a required step of the disciplinary procedure.

Situations involving major infractions or offenses shall be exempted from progressive discipline and may subject an employee to discipline, including discharge, regardless of the employee's prior record.

Management shall in appropriate cases give the Union advanced notice of suspensions and discharges. Failure to give notice shall not be an issue in any grievance relating to the suspension or discharge.

Probationary employees shall be exempt from the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 13 FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

The University shall consider employee requests for flexible working arrangements. NYC ILR Extension Office shall review such requests based upon the Office's business needs and ability to achieve workplace goals.

Long-Term Personal Leave

All regular full-time and part-time employees with at least one year of continuous service prior to the date of leave are eligible for a long-term personal unpaid leave of up to a maximum length of one year. The employee's position will not be held open, and there shall be no guarantee of re-employment. However, employees on unpaid long-term leaves of absence may use their seniority to apply for vacant bargaining unit positions in keeping with Article 10.

Eligible employees may be authorized to take a long-term unpaid personal leave for the following reasons:

benefits and application for Long-Term Disability Plan benefits is still pending, the employee shall be automatically placed on a Long-Term Personal Leave for the interim period up to a maximum of one (1) year.

Cornell Children's Tuition Scholarship will be continued until the end of the term in which a leave begins, then discontinued until the employee returns to regular University service.

Sick leave and vacation will not accrue while an employee is on unpaid leave. If the employee returns to active employment at the University within the limits specified by the unpaid leave of absence agreement, sick leave shall be restored to its former level.

Acceptance of any employment inconsistent with the unpaid leave will result in termination.

ARTICLE 15 JURY DUTY LEAVE
